

National Day of Remembrance – Public Service Announcement

South Carolina Chapter of Parents Of Murdered Children, Inc.

For the families and friends of those who have died by homicide

P.O. Box 90887 – Columbia, SC 29290
Ph: (803) 776-0880 – Fax: (803) 776-0880
E-mail: southcarolinapomc@msn.com

For Information Contact
Marvin M Bryant
(803) 414-4491
(803) 776-0880
1 (866) 617-7662

MURDERED VICTIMS TO BE REMEMBERED

The Parents Of Murdered Children-South Carolina Chapter is joining the National Organization of Parents Of Murdered Children, Inc. (POMC) in their “National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims.” Sunday, September 25, 2005. This marks the Seventh Annual National Day of Remembrance for Murder Victims sponsored by the National Organization of Parents Of Murdered Children, Inc. (POMC).

The POMC South Carolina Chapter will begin gathering at 4:30 p.m. at Finlay Park-Taylor Street side and at 5:30 p.m. host a Silent March from Finlay Park to the Washington Street United Methodist Church with a Victim Tribute to begin at 6:00 p.m. Reverend Jack C. Washington, Associate Director with the United Methodist Church-South Carolina Annual Conference Council On Ministries will be the event speaker.

The Memorial Ceremony is for the family and friends of those who were murdered or victims of homicide. The ceremony is open to the public and will be held at Washington Street United Methodist Church, 1401 Washington Street, Columbia, SC, on Sunday, September 25, 2005.

The South Carolina Chapter of Parents of Murdered Children, Inc. is a non-profit, 501© (3) public service organization open to the public. South Carolina POMC through its self-help support group format provides members help by sharing experiences, feelings and insights and help facilitate the reconstruction of their lives through contact with similarly affected persons.

Dedicated to the Aftermath and Prevention of Murder